

FROM THE DESK OF:

Santa Claus

Ho, ho, ho! Things have been very busy here at the North Pole preparing for Christmas!

You are receiving this letter because you are one of the very special children who has a Police Officer as a parent! You see, most of my presents are delivered on December 25th, but I make a special exception for all the children like you whose Daddy has to work on Christmas Day to keep everyone safe.

Might I tell you, Christmas is not about the day it is celebrated on, but more about those we are with and the joy and love we share in celebrating. It's not about what's under the Christmas tree, but what matters is who is around it. So, the elves have been working very hard to prepare everything for you and your family, so that we can make an extra special trip so you can all enjoy Christmas together.

I will be visiting your house on:

December

Make sure you get to bed early that night; the reindeer will only stop if you are sleeping! Oh, and if you want to leave some cookies, you know I love those! Ho, ho, ho!

Thank you for being so good this year, and please tell your Daddy thank you for keeping everyone safe and for all he does! I'll be making a special stop at his station on Christmas to say hello too!

Merry Christmas!

Santa Claus
